

Top 10 Reasons to Choose Piper RV Park for Your Extended Stay in the Pacific Northwest

If you've found this page, you're likely looking for that perfect spot to spend an extended RV stay in the Pacific Northwest.

At the Piper RV Park in Vancouver, WA, we have great parking spaces available with new ownership that has been making steady improvements on an old park lot for the last few years. We pride ourselves in the friendly community living space we aim to achieve, with quality, long-term residents.

That's why we have a rigorous application process and safety measures for incoming residents. Here are 8 reasons to make Piper RV Park your choice for long-term living.

1. Convenient Location Near Portland

Located just across the river from Portland, Oregon, you've got big city amenities just a hop, skip, and a jump from your spot. Then, on your other side, you have the great pine-forested mountains of the Northwest awaiting you, ready for exploration. There's nothing better than the best of both worlds when you're looking to settle down for an extended stay in the area.

2. Close to Nature

Speaking of which, Piper RV Park is situated just at the gateway to some of the most breathtaking scenery, fishing lakes, and hiking trails you'll find on this side of the Mississippi. Whether you've been all around the Pacific Northwest or are coming here for the first time, you can't miss the stunning views from Mount St. Helens or the awe-inspiring trails of the Gifford Pinchot National Forest that each lies just 40 miles NE from our location in Vancouver. Adventure awaits just around the corner.

3. Affordable Long-Term Stay Options

Living in an RV long-term should be affordable. Piper RV Park makes that simple. Our park offers a budget-friendly alternative to big city life for settling down. Our current rates begin at $750 / month for rent for long-term parking in Vancouver, WA.

We are a pet-friendly RV park near Portland, which lies below Vancouver, just across the Columbia River that separates the two states, connected to Vancouver by the Oregon-Washington Bridge. It's just a short car trip away.

4. A Great Community Atmosphere

We mentioned earlier that Piper RV Park isn't just a place to park your RV. We like to think of ourselves as a community. We've found that people who stay here long term become friends, and there's always someone around to help or share a story. We aim to create a friendly atmosphere that makes the park feel like a real home away from home.

Plus, you can visit local attractions like The Waterfront or go fishing in the nearby lakes like Vancouver, Mervin, or Yale Lake with other residents and Vancouver locals.

5. Laundry Facilities

There are laundry facilities near the park site in the surrounding area, such as the well-reviewed World Wash Laundry, within walking distance, less than half a mile away.

6. Safe and Clean Environment

The new owners of Piper RV Park have been striving tirelessly to ensure a safe, secure, and clean environment for all residents. We believe in building trust and making the shared spaces of the park accommodating for everyone and encourage all residents to clean up after themselves and report any potential safety issues to us as quickly as possible.

7. Mild Climate

One of the best things about staying at a Long-term RV park in Vancouver, WA, is the mild weather. Unlike other areas of the US where the weather can be quite hot or cold, the weather here stays pretty comfortable all year round. This makes RV living easier because you don't have to worry about big temperature changes, snow, or high heat changing how you go about your day-to-day living.

8. Pet-Friendly

Finally, we're also a pet-friendly long-term stay RV park. We know that families are looking to stay here long term and that pets are a part of that. That's why we've set up our accommodations to allow for pets.

However, we ask that your pet get approved by our Community Manager and have their shot records available. These are important for the safety and health of everyone at the park.
